Matching Science, Business and Talent

The Idea:

Bringing People Together who Develop the Future of Medicine

The established and innovative format matches science, business and young academics: find new project ideas, develop collaborations in industry and science and identify new talents and job occasions as well as investment opportunities.

The Concept:

The Best of Europe: 100 Insights, 1 Day

You can not get more access to cutting-edge medical research in one day. At the European Health Science Match, more than 100 international scientists from a broad spectrum of life sciences give an insight into their work in 3-minute-presentations.

The Result:

1 Event, 100 Speakers, 600 Attendees

In 2016 the European Health Science Match took place in Heidelberg, Germany's leading life science cluster. It was sponsored by the German Federal Ministry of Education and Research and the government of Baden-Württemberg.

- 5 Corporate Partners
- 3 Public Partners
- 16 Science Partners
- 18 Network Partners

Great Feedback of the Attendees

- 85% rated the event as very good or good
- 84% rated the speakers as very good or good
- 87% rated the topic-bandwidth as very good or good

„First time for me to see such an event. It's fascinating!“

Abstract of former partners of the event:

„It's a truly spectacular event“

„It's really a kind of new spirit here!“

Participation Options:

Exhibition

Reach potential new research partners and customers with a stand at the event.

Content

Position your company as a leader in your field by championing one of the speaker sessions or a panel discussion.

- Short Introduction Keynote
- Participation in a panel discussion

Recruiting

Access to top-quality talent: The event format is a major draw for top young talent. A scholarship program allows companies to invite students, young professionals and start-ups to the conference. As a member of the jury you are involved in the selection and can access the profile data. You can invite the young talent that is of most interest to you to your own informal meetings.

Branding

Leave your mark among decision-making target groups: Key media include Tagesspiegel, Handelsblatt, WirtschaftsWoche, Die Zeit and communication in connection with the event (target groups: decision makers and opinion leaders in politics, business and science).

Hospitality

Invite your own guests, get an own lounge or sponsor a welcome reception the day before.
